HVC In Community

SYMPATHY—We extend our sympathy in the Lord to the family of Phil McWilliams, whose mother, Florence McWilliams, passed away on Monday, March 5.

RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS—New members will be received this morning. Please take a moment after the service to greet them.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM—We rejoice in the Lord's faithfulness this morning with Jeremy & Amy Rife as they present their daughter, Genevieve Anne, and with Kirk and Wendy Meadows as they present their children Grayson Allen and Ava Anne for the sign of covenant baptism.

MARCH IS READING MONTH and Party Town is teaming up with ACTC to help stock their bookshelves. You can help by bringing in any new or gently used children's books. Board books to 5th grade reading level would be best. Books can be dropped off at the Church or The Point. Thanks for helping us share the love of reading!

BAPTISM ORIENTATION with the Pastor is scheduled for Tuesday, March 20, beginning at 7:15pm at the Point. Both parents are asked to attend. RSVP online at Registration Central located on the HVC home page.

ESL—Each week we have about 50 non-native English speakers come to our ESL program. If you're curious about what we do or are interested in possibly teaching or helping in another way, come shadow on a Wednesday night and check out what goes on. Contact Kelli Erwin (kelli.erwin@gmail.com) for details.

THE CROWN

“The Crown Rules History”

March 11, 2018

Let me be on my guard when the world puts on a loving face, for it will, if possible, betray me as it did my Master, with a kiss.
— Charles Spurgeon

To require God to prove that He is able and willing to fulfill His promises would be proof positive that one does not trust Him.”
— Charles Swindoll

In a clock, stop but one wheel and you stop every wheel, because they are dependent upon one other. So when God has ordered a thing for the present to be thus and thus, how do you know how many things depend upon this thing? God may have some work to do twenty years hence that depends on this passage of providence that falls out this day or this week.

Message Series

THE CROWN – Perhaps you are intrigued by the current Netflix series on Queen Elizabeth, or just by royalty in general because it seems so exotic compared to our own country and culture. However, there is no greater crown than the one that currently rests on the head of the Christ, and many do not truly understand His authority or His splendor. Join us this Lenten Season for a unique study on the Old Testament Book of 1 Kings that will help us understand more deeply the implications of that crown and the true meaning of Easter.

Closing

1 Kings 13:1-6 (NLT)

1 At the LORD's command, a man of God from Judah went to Bethel, arriving there just as Jeroboam was approaching the altar to burn incense. 2 Then at the LORD's command, he shouted, "O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says: A child named Josiah will be born into the dynasty of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests from the pagan shrines who come here to burn incense, and human bones will be burned on you."

3 That same day the man of God gave a sign to prove his message. He said, "The LORD has promised to give this sign: This altar will split apart, and its ashes will be poured out on the ground."

4 When King Jeroboam heard the man of God speaking against the altar at Bethel, he pointed at him and shouted, "Seize that man!" But instantly the king's hand became paralyzed in that position, and he couldn't pull it back. 5 At the same time a wide crack appeared in the altar, and the ashes poured out, just as the man of God had predicted in his message from the LORD.

6 The king cried out to the man of God, "Please ask the LORD your God to restore my hand again!" So the man of God prayed to the LORD, and the king's hand was restored and he could move it again.
