Rise and SHINE

“Awakening Others”

January 27, 2019

We have all read in scientific books, and indeed, in all romances, the story of the man who has forgotten his name. The man walks about the streets and can see and appreciate everything; only he cannot remember who he is. Well, every man is that man in the story. Every man has forgotten who he is We are all under the same mental calamity; we have all forgotten our names. We have all forgotten what we really are.

- G. K. Chesterton

We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about w/ drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.

- C. S. Lewis

What I know for sure is this: we come from mystery and we return to mystery.

- Parker Palmer

NEW Message Series

ALL LIFE RESTORED – The season of Advent pointed us towards that Day when every sad thing comes untrue (Tolkien), but in the meantime our lives and vocations should be giving hints and hopes about what is coming. What is your “vocation”? How does all the ordinary stuff that fills our lives give off the scent of Eternity? What does the Ordinary have to do with the Ultimate? Next week begins our Winter Series that focuses on HVC’s Core Value of Full-Time Calling and how to live out Christian spirituality in our daily callings.

Colossians 1:25–29 (NIV)

25 I have become [the church’s] servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fullness — 26 the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the Lord’s people. 27 To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

28 He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ. 29 To this end I strenuously contend with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me.

Philippians 2:12–16a (NIV)

12 Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed —not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence —continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose.

14 Do everything without grumbling or arguing, 15 so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation.” Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky 16 as you hold firmly to the word of life.

Philippians 1:6 (NRSV)

6 I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.
