“Work Realism”

February 10, 2019

All that I have written seems like straw to me.

- Thomas Aquinas; words spoken three months before he died in 1274

*In the beginning, O God,
When the firm earth emerged from the waters of life
You saw that it was good.
The fertile ground was moist
The seed was strong
And earth's profusion of colour and scent was born.
Awaken my senses this day
To the goodness that still stems from Eden.
Awaken my senses
To the goodness that can still spring forth
In me and in all that has life.*

- Celtic Morning Prayer

Message Series

ALL THINGS RESTORED – The season of Advent pointed us towards that Day when every sad thing comes untrue (Tolkien), but in the meantime our lives and vocations should be giving hints and hopes about what is coming. What is your “vocation”? How does all the ordinary stuff that fills our lives give off the scent of Eternity? What does the Ordinary have to do with the Ultimate? Our winter Series focuses on HVC’s core value of Full-Time Calling and how to live out Christian spirituality in our daily callings.

Genesis 3:16-19 (NIV)

16 To the woman he said,
“I will make your pains in childbearing very severe;
with painful labor you will give birth to children.
Your desire will be for your husband,
and he will rule over you.”

17 To Adam he said, “Because you listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree about which I commanded you, ‘You must not eat from it,’ “Cursed is the ground because of you;
through painful toil you will eat food from it
all the days of your life.

18 It will produce thorns and thistles for you,
and you will eat the plants of the field.

19 By the sweat of your brow
you will eat your food
until you return to the ground,
since from it you were taken;
for dust you are
and to dust you will return.”

Ecclesiastes 1:2 (NIV)

2 “Meaningless! Meaningless!”
says the Teacher.
“Utterly meaningless!
Everything is meaningless.”

Romans 8:22 (NIV)

22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 (NIV)

18 This is what I have observed to be good: that it is appropriate for a person to eat, to drink and to find satisfaction in their toilsome labor under the sun during the few days of life God has given them — for this is their lot.
